

It Takes A Big Heart

It takes a big heart for someone indeed,
To give of themselves to help with a need.
Showing no selfishness and willing to share,
Is someone who's blessed and they really care.

It takes a big heart to think of others,
And look at them truly as sisters and brothers.
Blessed are those who are humble and meek,
That lends a hand to the homeless and weak.

It takes a big heart just to be kind,
And that sort of person is easy to find.
No need to search from place to place,
Just look in the mirror and view your own face.
It takes a big heart....to give.

Pep Thoughts

Sometimes we're quite a mess,
Especially when we're under stress.
Our minds just move so Fast,
Thinking of the present, future and past.
Our bodies can go through a phase,
With sickness that lingers for days.
And emotions can bring us down,
to a point where all we do is frown.
But thank God for His story,
about Jesus Christ and His Glory.
And a fact that's true and sure,
Until the end He will help us endure!
