

CHIEF MINISTRIES

July, 2009

Greetings in the name of the Lord:

I encourage you to read the books of Ezra and Nehemiah. Especially Nehemiah right now. I know the enemy has been harassing and interfering with many of God's chosen. I feel like God has "encapsulated" me from several fiery darts the enemy has been shooting as of late. Why? I ask. I believe God has shown me that I'm learning not to give any place to the devil. When I do, I'm useless and attacked on every side and His covering is maneuvered around.

Thankfully, I feel protected and shielded from the enemies attempts to crush my spirit. I know he's trying, using cellies, religious sepulchers full of dead men's bones, professors of God's Kingdom, yet not possessors. I can see it happening around me, but I can't feel it. He's revealing it to me, but if I choose to let those small things not affect me, He causes them to be of no effect. The grumblers and moaners will always be around. Even the tares that are right alongside the wheat will be around until the end. Just know that come harvest time, they'll be gathered up and burned. There are those who have heard about the love of Christ so much that an entire nation could have been saved by now... Yet, they'll sit in the middle of the work of the Lord, complaining about something, thinking they're fooling God, the chaplain, or who knows who, yet they're only fooling themselves. May God have mercy on them!

Waste no more time on the small things that hinder you from being effective for the King! It's time to move up and on to the powerful things of God. There's a building of a new foundation that will house the presence and power of God. A place full of compassion and passion for the apostolic outpouring of God's grace and mercy. Are you ready? Will you hand me another brick? Will you be part of the building process? You may not even understand what I'm saying right now, but I'm praying for greater revelation and wisdom to be imparted to all who will listen.

Ridicule. People coming against the builders of the wall. If you've read Nehemiah, you'll read his prayers of repentance and he saw the need to rebuild something solid, offering protection and stability for God's people. There were enemies opposed to this, but it didn't matter. God had purposed in the heart of Nehemiah to see the job get done and he found the men to do the work. Several of these chosen were out of their comfort zones in doing cement work. A goldsmith, a perfume maker? God was using those who said, "Here I am, use me"! Even men from other places were brought in to complete the task. Still, there were those who mocked their dedication. Yet through prayer and work, and even though there were threats to shut them down, they prepared themselves and all oppression was put down. Every time something or someone came against them, they overcame through prayer! They were able to complete the work God wanted done. He's the same way with us;

And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. Phil 1:6 ESV

A revival took place after Ezra and Nehemiah gathered the people, for there were some things that needed attention in the lives of God's people. They listened, repented wept, and were forgiven. Do it! I like what they said in 8:10;

The joy of the Lord is your strength! Neh. 8:10

What continued this revival? Continued confession and worshipping their Lord and God. The ministers exhorted the people to stand up and cry with a loud voice;

Bless the Lord your God forever and ever and blessed be your glorious name which is exalted above all blessing and praise. Neh 9:5

After this, they made a new covenant with God and sealed it.

This ministry is excited about what God is doing throughout the prisons. God is calling men out of their comfort zone and getting them ready for an end-time move of God that is mighty and powerful. We're looking for men who will be in covenant agreement with us to pray for the work of God to expand and reach countless individuals. God is currently opening doors to develop CHIEF's House, a halfway house that will go all-the-way in seeing recruited individuals receive healthy re-integration to society.

CHIEF's House will provide a place to parole to, a network of good jobs, a fellowship of believers to continue mentoring and much more. God's timing is perfect, so we'll keep you updated on that. Would you agree with us and sign-up with CHIEF Ministries to pray for the prisons and the men of God? We still put Bibles into the hands of thousands of new converts and those that love to study God's word. This has become a large undertaking, but God has never failed in meeting every request. Letters of encouragement are being currently sent to upwards of 170 plus prisons in several states.

Are you willing to agree with us for even greater things through the end of this year and beyond? Please sign and return the enclosed "Covenant Agreement" and share with other eager warriors you trust. God is looking for men who are ready to find their place in the ministry of God, not just in word, but in deed as well.

Please know that this ministry prays for you and is constantly believing that you'll stand up and take your rightful place as more than a conqueror. We're looking for a response from you to help us find on-fire partners, willing to be allied on the front lines against the enemy. Let your prayer be that of Nehemiah; "Remember me O my God, for good".

Written in obedience and apostolic anointing,

Chief
