

I gave my heart and life to Jesus Christ June 2006. At first I use to say I didn't need church but as I've been going to chapel at this prison, I've learned so much and continue to learn as I read my bible daily. I have been in prison for 27 months this June 08. My wife doesn't write to me anymore, my family stills stays in contact a little. I've often had thoughts of just giving up on my parole, on being missed and loved and a few times on life too. But as I never cease to pray or ask God to please help me He always answers me and that's why I don't give up because I know He loves me and cares about me and that's such a wonderful feeling. It fills my heart with all that it lacks and although the devil tries his best to take that love from me too, he can't!

I'm not a perfect Christian, I still have flaws, but in due time I know things will get better for me as I change slowly, but surely. I've often felt sad because as I've searched the world for true love I was confused not realizing that is what the flesh wanted, but as my eyes were opened, I knew my spirit is more joyous with the true love of Jesus Christ! He provides me with everything I need! So my testimony is; No matter how hard things get or what the devil does to hurt you or make you quit, trust in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ because He will not let you down. He loves and cares for you as He fills whatever you lack in your life and He doesn't ever break His promises. He gave His life for us....is that not love? There's no greater love in this world than that!
