Battlefield in the mind,
Battlefield in the heart.
Battlefield amongst our brother's
Who is winning the battle?

God said through him we receive victory,
Why do we lose?
The battle of our house is a fraction of the war.
Which way is headed which? Victory, defeat?

God speaks through me,
Who speaks through you?
A brother judges you,
Do you judge him?
Help finds you.

Do you recognize help?
Christ controls me,
Who controls you?
If I respect you,
Will you respect me?

If I try to help out of respect and love,
Will you listen with respect and love?
We know the paths of right and wrong,
Which way do you follow?
Jesus loves us.
Can we prove we love Jesus?

No matter how tough the battle,
Will you give up a win?
Jesus is the way of life,
Satan is the way of death.

Who's your Lord?
If so, do you act that way?
Praise Jesus! Praise victory!
Serve Christ

Fellowship

Authentic testimonies to be shared,
Mutual relationships with brothers everywhere.
Sympathetic compassion, show you care,
Forgive with mercy, its only fair.

Speaking in love and honesty should always be there,
Admit weakness humbly, show you are aware.
Show respect and courtesy, easy load to bear,
Listen with confidentiality, don't go around and share.
This is fellowship, not despair

Lord Jesus

Show me how to love my brothers.
For I am in discomfort.
Help me climb to your standards,
For I am slipping down a muddy hill.
Strengthen my will to devote myself to you,
For temptation is strong.

Open my eyes to evil tricks.
For the devil is cunning.
Guide me by the Holy Spirit,
For evil shall not prevail.

Test my faith
For I shall grow stronger.
Show me your will
For that's what I shall live by.

Answer my prayers,
For that's all I have.
Accept my praise,
For my works are your glories.

You gave your life for me,
For I shall give my life for you.

Amen
